Year 13 Trial Exams - Monday 5 December - Friday 16th December 2022

Dear Families

I am writing to you with further information about the first set of Year 13 Trial Exams that will take place in December. A copy of the general timetable for these exams is attached for you. Students will receive their individual timetable in due course, including information about what to do if there is a clash. Students should check their timetables very carefully to ensure they know where and when each of their exams takes place.

The A Level Trial Exams are very important in helping students prepare for their final exams and serve as a good benchmark for how the students may perform in the summer. They will help the students identify what they need to improve upon as they work towards their final exams. Revision material will be available on Google Classroom for students to access. The focus, timings and requirements of each exam will be given by the subject teachers.

Year 13 students will be on study leave for the exam period. This means that students need only come to school for their examinations, arriving 15 minutes before the start time.

The LRC will be open from 8.00 to 5.00 every day as normal. When not sitting an exam, students are expected to study at home or study in the LRC. Students will be allowed to leave after each morning examination is complete or choose to stay on site.

I wish all the students the very best for these exams and hope that they will revise thoroughly in order to reach their full potential.

Yours faithfully

Gareth Jenkins
